Commissioner for Patents
Washington, District of Columbia 20231

Dear Sir:

The Applicant respectfully notes that the Notice of Abandonment mailed June 12, 2006 states that the Applicant's Reply submitted on January 12, 2006 ('Reply to Restriction Requirement') to the Office Action mailed October 16, 2005 ('Restriction Requirement') was filed "two months beyond the set period of ONE (1) month". However, the Applicant respectfully submits that the Reply to Restriction Requirement was filed one month beyond the one (1) month shortened statutory period, such that an extension of time fee of two (2) months is required.

The Applicant further respectfully notes that the Applicant is unaware of whether the one month extension of time fee enclosed with the Applicant's Reply submitted February 3, 2006 ('Reply to Extension Notice') to the Notice Requiring Extension of Time Fee mailed January 18, 2006 ('Extension Notice') was drawn by the Office, and in this regard respectfully requests the Office to determine whether the whole amount of the accompanying two (2) month's extension of time fee is required.

Very respectfully,

Applicant:
